HUGH'S CORNER

Hugh M Bullock was a man of faith, an entrepreneur, an advocate for education, a generous neighbor and actively involved in his community. Chances are you're an apple who didn't fall far from the tree.

Each Month - We'll spotlight this legacy living on THROUGH You!

This Month's Spotlight:

This month, our family is honored to spotlight the incredible leadership of our family member, Christopher Green, Lead Pastor of Epoch Church in Wilmington, NC.

Chris leads with a heart that is both deeply rooted in faith and genuinely committed to people, just like our ancestor, Hugh M. Bullock. What makes his leadership so special is not just his wisdom or experience, but his authenticity – he truly cares about building a Christ-centered community where families can grow and thrive together. We are grateful for the impact his church is making and for the example he sets of servant leadership in action.

FAMILY CONNECTION HUB

DID YOU KNOW?

Rev. Hugh Granville Tilley, North Carolina State House of Representatives, was a member of the North Carolina General Assembly in 1887 and 1889. Rev. Tilley was Hugh M. Bullock's first cousin.

He served in the House Committee on Railroads, Postroads, and Turnpikes in the 1887 session of the General Assembly.

Reuben Bullock, father of Hugh M Bullock and his brother-in-law, Marcus Tilley were among the founders of the first Granville County District 15 public school for colored children in the late 1800's.

Hugh "DaVinci" Bullock created masterpieces ranging from the Late Rev. Jesse Jackson to the first Black Regiment "54th Regiment" from the free states to form and fight in the Civil War.
